WWI Museum Tour—Tuesday July 15, 2014

Arrangements have been made for a special tour of the WWI Museum for the Kansas City Chapter of the Missouri Pilots Association. We are also inviting members of the St. Joe and Warrensburg Chapters to come join us.

We will meet at the Lee's Summit Airport (LXT) at 9:00 am to car pool to the museum. The tour will start at 10:00 am. We will have lunch.

Please call Terrie Jo Fox and let us know how many will be attending and if you will meet us at LXT or not.

Steeped in history, the National World War I Museum at Liberty Memorial is America's only museum dedicated to sharing the stories of the Great War through the eyes of those who lived it.

Interactive displays, thought-provoking films and eyewitness testimonies help guide visitors through one of the largest collections of WWI artifacts in the world.

From the first shots fired in 1914 to the last attempts at peace in 1919, this award-winning museum offers a global perspective of "The War to End All Wars," and includes firsthand accounts from the battlefield and home front alike.

Plan your visit to the National World War I Museum today, and learn why the First World War wasn't the last.

Admission (May get different price)

Tickets allow guests access to all galleries, special exhibits and the Liberty Memorial Tower.

Blue Skies

Tarkio, Missouri Airshow

Show time is this Saturday, July 12 and we would like to answer some questions that have been coming up and try to get all of the information you need out there.

Gates will open at 6:30 am and admission is $10 with kids 5 and under free. Breakfast will be available for purchase at the airport. We will have an aviation town hall meeting starting at 10:30 am with members of Congress and other aviation dignitaries. The show will start shortly after that concludes. We will have to close the main road into the airport during the show so please try to get here early to keep from having to take a detour and potentially missing something.

Pilots flying in at any time during the weekend, please make sure to check your NOTAMS before leaving for Tarkio. Also please note that upon your arrival you will be parked in the grass areas of the airport.

We hope everybody is able to come out and join us for what is sure to be an amazing day to spend with friends, family and neighbors. Please pass this information along so everybody
