President's Message

As I grew up, like most kids, I had a few heroes! Some I knew, some I admired from afar, some were genuine celebrities. Most of them had one thing in common, they were pilots.

As a young adult I made it a point to meet and thank most of them. Meeting with some of them was quite an adventure, thanking them personally for the example they set was a real privilege. Some of our members are such examples, no names are necessary, we all know them well.

Influence is a funny thing, a little personal effort can sometimes yield a lifetime of results.

Our organization is noticeably grey, where are the young aviators? Let's make it a point to bring some aspiring young aviators to an MPA meeting. Better yet take them flying first, whet their appetite, then feed them with some good food, good company, and some of the best speakers in aviation at one of our monthly meetings. You could end up being some ones hero.
